TWO DEAD IN TRAIN WRECK.

Flyer on B. & O. Jumps Track, Boiler Bursts, Two Men Killed and Many Hurt.

GOING FROM A FESTIVAL.

Number of New Yorkers Among Passengers, but None Seriously Injured—Ran Into Open Switch.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Sept. 19.—The lastbound express No. 2, known as the "Royal Blue," on the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, with eight cars, was wrecked last night by running into an open switch at Leesburg, thirty-three miles from here. Two persons were killed, two seriously injured and forty slightly injured.

The train left Cincinnati at 6:10 o'clock last night with a large number of passengers, many from this city, and quite a number of through passengers. At Leesburg the train plunged into an open switch and crashed into the rear end of a freight train standing on the siding. The accident occurred at 8:20 P. M., while the train was going at the rate of forty miles an hour. The engine was dashed to pieces and turned over on its side, killing the engineer and fireman. The baggage car was lifted from the trucks and thrown over the tender and engine.

The injured and wounded were brought to this city, where physicians attended to their injuries. The dead were taken to their homes here.

THE DEAD.

PHILLIP ROE, engineer, married, CHARLES STUBOR, fireman, married, Chillicothe.

The seriously injured: E. L. Stuck, mail clerk, Loveland, O.; Mrs. —, Sellers, Wellston, O.

Among the passengers cut and bruised but not seriously hurt were the following:

J. H. McKullian, New York; S. Thorner, Parkersburg, Va.; A. Lybrand, Delaware, O.; W. L. Moore, Mekeil, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Harrick, Lowell, Mass.; Isaac Fette, St. Marys, W. Va.; A. M. Ward, Oden, Ind.; S. W. Pratt, Pleasant, W. Va.; A. W. Allman, Houquiman, W. Va.; Miss Pierce, Timberville, W. Va.; W. A. Mason, Springfield, O.; R. Simon, New York; Misses Schneider, New York; G. W. Roeker, New York; Otto H. Barron, London, England; J. Clark, London, England; S. G. Friedman, Grafton, W. Va.; J. H. Camp, Spencer, W. Va.; L. O. Curtis, Spencer, W. Va.; N. I. Goble, Buffalo, S. B. Baker, Parkersburg, W. Va.; Mrs. E. J. Sriver and daughter, Wellston, O.; Charles Kelsa, Scotland, A. Levy, New York; William Levy, New York; A. L. Block, Kline, W. Va.; Louise Ebert, Mrs. C. L. Hays, Washington, D. C.

ENGINEER KILLED IN TRAIN CRASH.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 19.—A collision of two passenger trains at Wilmore, Pa., on the Pittsburgh & Western Railroad, shortly before 10 o'clock today resulted in the killing of Engineer Benedict of the passenger train, the serious injury of four train men and slight injuries to a number of passengers.

The trains were known as 121 and 124, and one was a Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh train, the other a Pittsburgh and Western train. It is said that No. 121 was standing on a curve near Wilmore, when No. 124, west bound, crashed into it from the rear.

Hanged Three Weeks After Marriage.
